

Your logistics expert in refrigerated transport

Transport of chilled and frozen food products

It takes the right team to ensure an unbroken cold chain for temperature-controlled products. Our experienced and professional teams provide the best customised solutions including cross trade, door-to-door delivery and combined transport.

With a large fleet of ultramodern reefer trucks on the roads as well as offices and partners on the major European food sourcing markets, we guarantee the highest quality standard and safety.

Refrigerated transport of all products

We ensure an unbroken cold chain for your cargo from pick-up until delivery to make sure that the quality of your products remains of high standard.

Keeping your perishables fresh during transport is one of our core competences, and through daily departures, we offer some of the best solutions on the market.

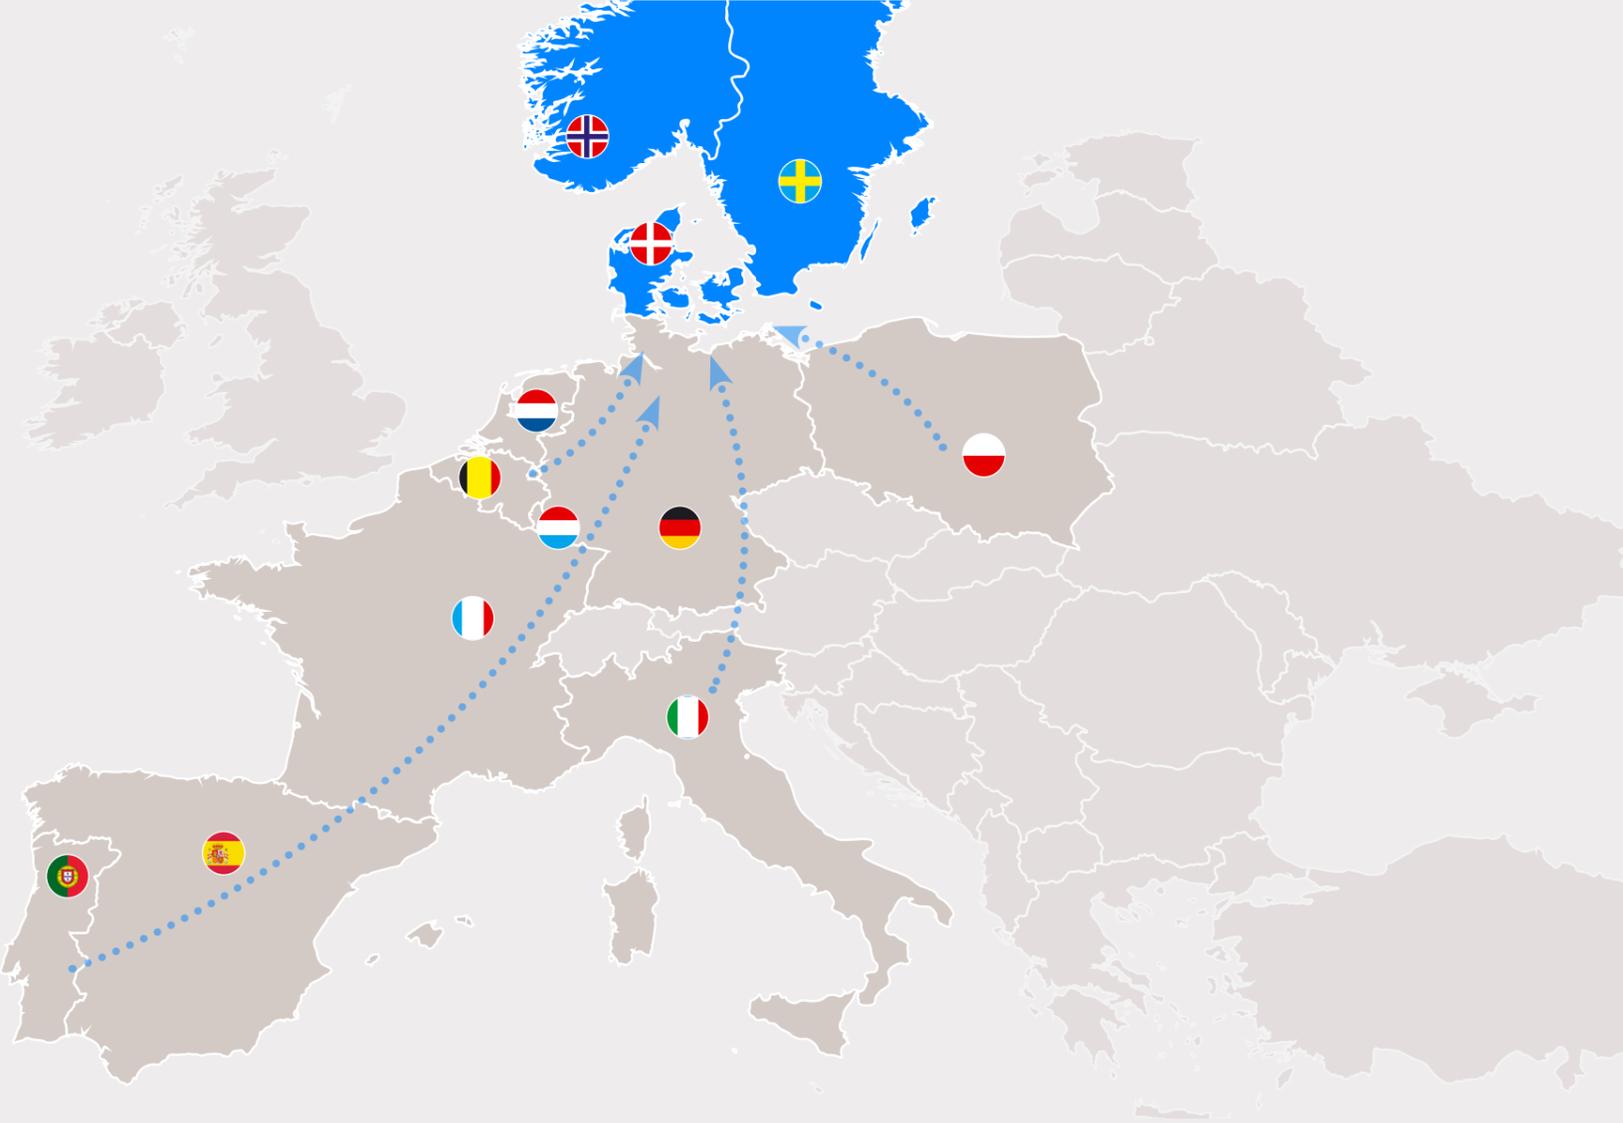

Among other things, we handle:

- > Perishables such as dairy, meat, vegetables, fruits etc.
- > Wine and beverage
- > Seafood and fish
- > Pharmaceuticals

Modern trailers control the temperature

Our modern reefer trailers are equipped with GPRS monitoring and fleet management. With these technological tools, we always know the exact position and temperature of the cargo.

We know that the slightest deviation in temperature may end up being a costly affair. However, by controlling the temperature, we make sure that the cold chain remains unbroken and that your perishable chilled and frozen cargo stays fresh - from pick-up until delivery.

Our services include

- > One point of contact

We work with...

Supermarkets
Timely and consistent deliveries of high-quality frozen and chilled products are crucial for supermarkets. Efficient logistics, clear communication and compliance with standards are key to a successful partnership.

Wholesalers
Bulk handling capabilities, storage efficiency and cost-effectiveness are vital in transporting frozen and chilled products for wholesalers. Flexibility in volume and reliable scheduling are also key considerations.

Food manufacturers
Seamless integration between production and logistics is crucial. Efficient cold storage, rapid transit times and scalable solutions are key, along with compliance to ensure product quality and safety.

Catering companies
Punctuality, product freshness and tailored delivery sizes are critical. Maintaining strict hygiene standards, flexibility to handle varying event demands, and seamless coordination with event schedules are essential.
